Interest Adjustment for First EMI

1. For the EMI booked till 27th November 2024, the interest amount charged in the first EMI is basis a 30-day period.
 - a) With effect from booking done from 29th April 2024 till 27th November 2024 if the period between the Merchant EMI booking date and Payment Due Date (credit period) is less than 30 days, the excess interest levied with applicable taxes will be credited back to the cardholder's account in the subsequent statement(s). From 2nd EMI onwards, interest will be levied for a 30-day period, from one PDD to the next PDD. Amount Credited will be posted in retail balance and will be visible to customer in the statement it is credited
 - b) With effect from booking done from 15th July 2024 till 27th November 2024, if the period between the Merchant EMI booking date and Payment Due Date (credit period) is more than 30 days, the remaining interest with applicable taxes (chargeable on the days beyond 30 days) will be debited in the subsequent statement(s). From 2nd EMI onwards, interest will be levied for a 30-day period, from one PDD to the next PDD. Amount Debited will be posted in EMI plan and added to the EMI value of the last month of the tenure, while the payment of this additional debit amount will be part of MAD & TAD in next statement after last billed EMI.
 - c) Interest computation for all bookings done from 29th April'24 onward will be from Payment Due Date to Payment Due Date for 2nd EMI. However, the first EMI will be from the Merchant EMI booking date to First Bill Payment Due Date.

Example for 1st EMI Credit scenario applicable for booking done between 29th April'24 and 27th November'24

Cardholders will be credited a portion of the computed interest amount if the credit period is lesser than the period for which interest has been charged in the first EMI i.e. the period between the Merchant EMI booking date and the Payment Due Date of first EMI is less than 30 days

Calculation for crediting back excess interest:

Interest charged in first EMI - $\{(1st\ EMI\ Interest\ Amount \div 30\ Days) \times (Period\ between\ Merchant\ EMI\ booking\ date\ \&\ Payment\ Due\ Date)\}$

Example:

Interest charged in first EMI (for a 30-day period) = Rs. 900

Period between the Merchant EMI booking date and Payment Due Date = 22 days

Then the amount that will be credited back to the cardholder's account in the subsequent statement(s) will be: $900 - \{(900 \div 30) \times (22)\} = Rs. 240$

Example for 1st EMI Debit scenario applicable for booking done between 15th July'24 and 27th November'24

Cardholders will be debited a portion of the computed interest amount if the credit period is more than the period for which interest has been charged in the first EMI i.e. the period between the Merchant EMI booking date and the Payment Due Date of first EMI is more than 30 days

Calculation for debiting remaining interest:

$\{(1st\ EMI\ Interest\ Amount \div 30\ Days) \times (Period\ between\ Merchant\ EMI\ booking\ date\ \&\ Payment\ Due\ Date)\} - Interest\ charged\ in\ first\ EMI$

Example:

Interest charged in first EMI (for a 30-day period) = Rs. 900

Period between the Merchant EMI booking date and Payment Due Date = 42 days

Then the amount that will be debited to the cardholder's account in the subsequent statement(s) will be: $\{(900 \div 30) \times (42)\} - 900 = Rs. 360$

2. For the offers booked from 28th November 2024 onwards, the interest amount chargeable in the 1st EMI will be calculated for the period between Merchant EMI booking date and the Payment Due Date (PDD), as per the credit card statement cycle. From 2nd EMI onwards, interest will be levied for a 30-day period, from one PDD to the next PDD. Hence, the 1st EMI amount may be different from subsequent EMIs.
 - a. Difference between Merchant EMI booking date and the first bill Payment Due Date as per the credit card statement cycle >30 days: 1st EMI amount will be more than other EMI.

Example:

Period between the EMI booking date and Payment Due Date = 34 days

EMI Booking Value = Rs. 60,000.00

Tenure = 3 months

EMI calculated basis 30-days period = Rs. 20,468.47

Principal of the first EMI = Rs. 19,768.47

Interest calculated in first EMI (for 30-days) = Rs. 700.00

Revised Interest calculated in first EMI for 34-days $(Rs. 700/30 \times 34) = Rs. 793.33$

Hence, first EMI $(Rs. 19,768.47 + Rs. 793.33) = Rs. 20,561.80$

Subsequent EMIs = Rs. 20,468.47

- b. Difference between Merchant EMI booking date and the first bill Payment Due Date as per the credit card statement cycle <30 days: 1st EMI amount will be less than other EMI.

Example:

Period between the booking confirmation date and Payment Due Date = 24 days

EMI Booking Value = Rs. 70,000.00

Tenure = 6 months

EMI calculated basis 30-days period = Rs. 12,147.65

Principal of the first EMI = Rs. 11,330.99

Interest calculated in first EMI (for 30-days) = Rs. 816.66

Revised Interest calculated in first EMI for 24-days (Rs.816.66/30*24) = Rs. 653.33

Hence, first EMI (Rs. 11,330.99 + Rs. 653.33) = Rs. 11,984.32

Subsequent EMIs = Rs. 12,147.65

- c. Difference between Merchant EMI booking date and the first bill Payment Due Date as per the credit card statement cycle = 30 days: 1st EMI amount will be equal to other EMI.

3. Foreclosure:

Effective 28th November 2024, for all Merchant EMI foreclosures, interest will either be debited/ Credited basis the foreclosure request date, Billing date, EMI booking date and payment due date and will be added to the Foreclosure Charges

Glossary

EBD: EMI booking date

FRD: Foreclosure Request Date

B1: 1st Bill Date (containing the first EMI billing)

PDD 1: First Bill Payment Due Date

B2: 2nd Bill Date (containing the second EMI billing)

PDD 2: Second Bill Payment Due Date

- a. Foreclosure Request Date (FRD) is before First Bill Date (B1)
- Cardholder will be debited interest amount for the days between EBD & The Foreclosure Request Date (FRD)
 - The interest amount will be calculated as $\{1^{\text{st}} \text{ EMI Interest} / (\text{PDD1} - \text{EBD})\} \times (\text{FRD} - \text{EBD})$
- b. Foreclosure Request Date is after First Bill Date (B1) & before First Bill Payment Due Date (PDD1)
- Cardholders will be credited a portion of billed interest amount for the days between EMI booking date (EBD) & the 1st Bill Payment Due Date (PDD 1)
 - Interest credited will be calculated as $\{1^{\text{st}} \text{ EMI Interest} / (\text{PDD 1} - \text{EBD})\} \times (\text{PDD 1} - \text{FRD})$
- c. Foreclosure Request Date is after First Payment Due Date (PDD 1) & before 2nd Bill Date (B2)
- Cardholders will be debited interest amount for the days between the Foreclosure Request Date (FRD) and 1st Bill Payment Due Date (PDD 1)
 - Interest debited will be calculated as $\{2^{\text{nd}} \text{ EMI Interest} / (\text{PDD 2} - \text{PDD 1})\} \times (\text{FRD} - \text{PDD1})$
- d. Foreclosure Request Date is after 2nd Bill Date (B2) & before 2nd Bill Payment Due Date (PDD2)
- Cardholders will be credited a portion of billed interest amount for the days between 1st Bill Payment Due Date (PDD 1) and 2nd Bill Payment Due Date (PDD 2)
 - Interest credited will be calculated as $\{2^{\text{nd}} \text{ EMI Interest} / (\text{PDD 2} - \text{PDD 1})\} \times (\text{PDD 2} - \text{FRD})$

While above points b, c & d refer to EMIs billed in 1st & 2nd Bill dates, the interest computation logic applies to EMIs billed in subsequent billing dates as well

The interest computations in the above scenarios will be over & above the Foreclosure Fee of 3% on the principal outstanding on pro-rata basis, plus applicable taxes. Foreclosure requests placed on statement generation date may attract extra interest.

For successful closure of the Foreclosure Service Request, the complete foreclosure amount needs to be paid within the timeline communicated at the time of placing foreclosure request.

From 2nd EMI onwards, interest will be levied for a 30-day period, from one PDD to the next PDD. Hence, the 1st EMI amount may be different from subsequent EMIs.

- Difference between Plan Open Date and the first bill Payment Due Date as per the credit card statement cycle >30 days: 1st EMI amount will be more than other EMIs.
 - Difference between Plan Open Date and the first bill Payment Due Date as per the credit card statement cycle = 30 days: 1st EMI amount will be equal to other EMIs.
 - Difference between Plan Open Date and the first bill Payment Due Date as per the credit card statement cycle <30 days: 1st EMI amount will be less than other EMIs.
14. At any given month, the interest portion of the monthly repayment amount (MRA) is determined by multiplying the reducing interest rate with the principal outstanding after the deduction of the previous month's repayment amount. In other words, the reducing rate of interest is the rate which when charged brings the outstanding principal to zero at the end of the tenure, where the interest charged is calculated on a reducing principal balance. Illustrative example of amortization scheduled given in the last clause in this document.
15. Any retail transaction appearing in the previous month's credit card statement which has been converted into Convert2EMI after the Statement Generation Date will not be deducted from the Total Amount Due (TAD) as provided in the previous statement. 18. In the event of non-payment / short payment of the Minimum Amount Due for more than three successive months, the Convert2EMI facility shall be closed / withdrawn and the principal outstanding along with the outstanding interest accrued till the date of such closure shall be debited to the Credit Card Account and appear in the subsequent monthly statement. SBI Card shall be entitled to demand immediate repayment of such consolidated outstanding amounts. 19. It is stipulated, if the SBI Credit Cardholder is revolving at the time of request for conversion of retail purchase to Convert2EMI, he will continue to be charged the standard credit card charge as per MITC on his revolving balance till the time of Convert2EMI conversion takes place within the Term defined hereinabove.

20. In the event the Credit Card is closed prior to all EMI(s) being charged, the amount outstanding under Convert2EMI and any applicable charges, as on the date of closure of the Credit Card, shall be debited to the Credit Card account as a consolidated amount. SBICPSL shall be entitled to demand immediate repayment of such consolidated outstanding amounts.
21. The accrued Reward Points for transactions converted to Convert2EMI would be forfeited. In the event of foreclosure of Convert2EMI booking, Reward Points will not be credited back to the Cardholder Account. 22. The cancellation window for Convert2EMI facility is 30 days from the date of booking. For all cancellation requests raised, all fees and charges will be reversed.  - Cancelled transaction date should be within 45 days of the original transaction date
 - Cancelled transaction is received as full refund in a single transaction (and not in multiple parts)
 - ‘Auth Code’ of refund transaction is same as that of the original transaction amount
- Subject to the above, EMI will automatically be cancelled on the best effort basis, subject to complete and accurate refund information received from the card network. If a full refund of transaction on card happens before EMI booking, then auto cancellation will not apply. In such cases, Cardholders need to call at the Helpline Number or E-mail SBICPSL
24. Any payment made to the Credit Card Account over and above the EMI amount shall not be deemed to be payment towards the amount availed under Convert2EMI and shall not be deemed as closure of the EMI plan.
25. There is a possibility that Cardholders inadvertently opt for different types of EMI offers on the same transaction. To avoid dual bookings against same transaction, SBI Card will follow the below hierarchy of booking and will cancel the duplicate booking on best effort basis as per the table shared below and communication confirming same will be sent to cardholder –

S. No	Primary Booking opted by Cardholder	Secondary/Duplicate Booking opted by Cardholder	Final booking allowed to continue in system

2	Convert2EMI	Flexipay EMI (Single transaction)	Convert2EMI booking will prevail while Flexipay EMI (single transaction booking) will be cancelled.
3	Convert2EMI	Flexipay EMI (Multiple transactions clubbed)	Convert2EMI booking will prevail and Flexipay EMI will be cancelled. Cardholders must call SBI Card Helpline and request re-booking of transactions which are not considered in Convert2EMI booking.

Glossary

- POD: Plan Open Date
- FRD: Foreclosure Request Date
- B1: 1st Bill Date (containing the first EMI billing)
- PDD 1: First Bill Payment Due Date
- B2: 2nd Bill Date (containing the second EMI billing)
- PDD 2: Second Bill Payment Due Date

Scenario 1: Foreclosure Request Date (FRD) is before First Bill Date (B1)

- Cardholders will be debited interest amount for the days between Plan Open Date (POD) & the Foreclosure Request Date (FRD)
- The interest amount will be calculated as $\{1st\ EMI\ Interest / (PDD1 - POD)\} \times (FRD - POD)$

Scenario 2: Foreclosure Request Date is after First Bill Date (B1) & before First Bill Payment Due Date (PDD1)

- Cardholders will be credited a portion of billed interest amount for the days between the Plan Open Date (POD) & the 1st Bill Payment Due Date (PDD 1)
- Interest credited will be calculated as $\{1st\ EMI\ Interest / (PDD\ 1 - POD)\} \times (PDD\ 1 - FRD)$

Scenario 3: Foreclosure Request Date is after First Payment Due Date (PDD 1) & before 2nd Bill Date (B2)

- Cardholders will be debited interest amount for the days between the Foreclosure Request Date (FRD) and 1st Bill Payment Due Date (PDD 1)

- o Interest debited will be calculated as $\{2\text{nd EMI Interest} / (\text{PDD 2} - \text{PDD 1})\} \times (\text{FRD} - \text{PDD1})$

Scenario 4: Foreclosure Request Date is after 2nd Bill Date (B2) & before 2nd Bill Payment Due Date (PDD2)

- o Cardholders will be credited a portion of billed interest amount for the days between 1st Bill Payment Due Date -(PDD 1) and 2nd Bill Payment Due Date (PDD 2)
- o Interest credited will be calculated as $\{2\text{nd EMI Interest} / (\text{PDD 2} - \text{PDD 1})\} \times (\text{PDD 2} - \text{FRD})$

While the above points refer to EMIs billed in 1st & 2nd Bill dates, the interest computation logic applies to EMIs billed in subsequent billing dates as well. The interest computations in the above scenarios will be over & above the Foreclosure Fee of 3% on the principal outstanding on a pro-rata basis, plus applicable taxes. Foreclosure requests placed on Statement Generation Date may attract extra interest. For successful closure of the Foreclosure Service Request, the complete foreclosure amount needs to be paid within the timeline communicated at the time of placing foreclosure request
