■ Hardayal Prasad New MD & CEO of SBI Card

NEW DELHI Hardayal Prasad has been appointed as managing director and CEO of SBI Card, the credit card issuer said in a statement on Monday. Prasad takes over from Vijay Jasuja who retired on January 31. His appointment is effective February 1, 2018. Prasad joined State Bank of India as a probationary officer in 1983, gaining experience in many areas of banking. He has served in several locations spread across different circles and abroad, SBI Card said. "As a leading card issuer with extensive reach across the country, we believe we can contribute significantly to India's digital revolution. We are committed to partnering in the endeavour to create a cashless society," Prasad said.
